Reports of an estrangement between Pluerta and General Blanquet can be positively denied. There were evidences of a break a week or so ago; but since then, as already reported in these dismatches. the differences have been dismatches. dispatches, the differences have been General Medina Barron, who has been commanding the Federal forces in So-nora, has been recalled to the capital. No reason is given, but it is surmised that the government has been aroused by the surprising gains of the revolu-tionary movement, culminating in the capture of Ciudad Victoria and the imperiled position of Tampice, the second most important port on the Gulf coast. It may be that General Barron is to be called upon for an explanation of the mutinous outbreaks of the garrison at
